

The Framework

The Framework outlines our approach to working with companies across the different categories in the pyramid below. We take into account both integrity risk and behavioural factors (such as interactions with the program) that influence participants when applying for the program. The Framework supports the program to achieve its objectives of encouraging additional R&D, including spill over effects, and ensuring integrity.

